Pam Fuller from the Haddons Kiwanis Club spoke to us on February 9th concerning her ‘Unsung Hero in the Fight for Equality’. Mr. Gibbs was Pam’s 3rd grade teacher. He was very instrumental in having black teachers receive the same salary as white teachers. When the case went to trial his lawyer was Thurgood Marshall, later to be a Supreme Court Justice. If you have not checked your emails from Betty concerning Pam’s talk please do so as Pam has included many articles for you to read.

Claire and 5 Kiwanians served pizza and soda to our 3rd and 4th graders on Thursday evening February 9th after their basketball season was completed.

George and Connie Wagoner spearheaded another successful spaghetti dinner held at the Child Development Center on Saturday, February 11th. Thank you to all of the Kiwanians who participated and for the help of the Woodbury Key Club.

Mackenzie Olson, a student at Clearview HS, spoke to us at our evening meeting on February 16th. She works with the program ‘She’s the First’ which refers to young women in developing nations who become the first in their family to graduate from high school. Mackenzie sponsors a girl in Nepal. These young girls gain knowledge in self-awareness and leadership skills. Mackenzie and Deepa email one another regularly. You may find further information on: www.shesthefirst.org Help send a girl in the developing world to school. By unlocking the power of your social networks and creatively fundraising for her sponsorship, you can change her life forever. Circle K Clubs in NJ are successfully fundraising with cupcakes.

Please remember our shut-ins: Dora Brown, Dick Love, and Joe Welch with a phone call or card. We miss you at our meetings.

On February 23rd we discussed the Mid-Winter Conference held in Long Branch on the 18th. Connie and Carol reported on the workshop for the Service Leadership Programs. They were happy to report that our club leads the way in our state working with our 6 Key Clubs. Rich and George discussed the Social Medium and how we can use facebook, Utube and Twitter to make our club more prominently known on the internet. Joan updated us on The Eliminate Project’s 5 year plan ending in the year 2014-15. Each club needs to find the way or ways that they can fund raise: individual, club, treasury, foundation, group fundraising projects, businesses, and thinking out of the box to raise money.

Betty organized the YCPO (Young Children Priority One) doll project. Great job Betty!! Greater Woodbury received 2 awards: for membership growth of a net gain of one new member, and for participating in NJ Kiwanis Week ‘Adopt a Community’. Rich accepted the awards for our club. Joan received a 2010-11 Lt Governor Award for Division 2 from Marc Litwack.
