Gloria Goode and Joan Clark who are on the Board of Directors at the Woodbury Child Development Center spoke at our club meeting on November 12th. They updated us on the programs and finances of their group. Tiffany Love is the new director. The child membership is stable. The after-school program is growing. Both Gloria and Joan expressed interest in joining Woodbury's Kiwanis Club. The two groups have had a long-standing relationship (about 30 years). Since our motto is "Serving the Children and the World" and the center has more than 100 children, we are to copy N.J. "Perfect Together."

On Thursday, November 19th Mary Carter discussed Main Street WOODBURY. It is involved in many Woodbury activities including those in October: Annual Golf Outing including prizes, giveaways, silent auction, raffles and dinner; Trick or Treat on Broad Street; and Ghost Tours walking through historic Woodbury. In September the lunch munch is held twice on Broad Street with live music, delicious food, vendors and local merchant lunch specials. In May the White Table Gala will be held on Saturday, May 7th starting at 6pm. More information concerning Main Street may be found on info@mainstreetwoodbury.org, mainstreetwoodbury.org, or call 856-845-8655. We thank Mary for speaking to us.

The Mayor's Breakfast is at 7am at Auletto's December 3rd. All members are invited to attend. @ $20.00.
