Connie Wagoner who has been working on a campaign of having our club members visit local businessmen in Woodbury and our surrounding communities talked about the Greater Woodbury Fact Sheet which we have compiled to explain our activities and projects with local children. Joe Welch and Joe Schultes had already presented to the Board and our luncheon meeting ideas for a newspaper letter about membership.

On Saturday June 6th Present Elect, George Wagoner, and Secretary, Betty Limanni, attended the Kiwanis Club Leadership Education (CLE) training along with 8 other Kiwanians from Division 1 & 2. Lt Governor Elect, Joan Van Note, also attended as hostess for our trainees, Ed Hutchinson, International Trustee, and Charlotte Groome. George and Betty will share the information learned with our club in the near future.

After our luncheon meeting on Thursday, June 18th we went to the Gloucester County Historical Society on Broad Street in Woodbury. Joe S, Jack D, Ken G, Connie, Carol, and Joan enjoyed the tour of the brides' gowns given by Kathy Fleming. The 1765 house, now a museum, was the home of the Reverend Andrew Hunter who was a tea burner and educator of the Revolutionary War era. In 1683 John Wood from Bury, England visited him. James Lawrence of "Don't Give Up the Ship!" fame during the War of 1812, and John S Jessup, a prominent judge and civic leader during the later part of the 19th century, also lived in and owned the home. Judge Jessup did a lot of renovations by raising the ceilings to 12 ft and installing the 'pocket doors' in the front rooms. Among the gowns we saw were Frannie Watson's, Mary Saunder's, Laura DeHart's and Lois Currier's. Kathy took us to the 2nd floor to see the Military Room and the Children's Room. We looked at the Tyco Trains which were made in Woodbury Heights. Eileen Shanahan led us to the basement where we saw the huge hearth and cooking utensils. I was fascinated by the dough box used to raise dough and the spotting board used to plant seeds. We thank Kathy and Eileen for taking their time to give us a picture of Woodbury and its locale history from 1675 until the present.

Our Service Leadership Programs were very active in May reports Ruth and Ed.

Donna Willmann of Byron Home, Inc., a specialist in helping seniors downsize their homes, gave us some very helpful hints on Thursday, May 7th. Her personal attention to details of your downsizing move has given many people peace of mind. Not only is she a competent organizer in your large home but she helps with fitting items into your new smaller living space.

The Fourth of July or Independence Day celebrates the signing of the Declaration of Independence by the Continental Congress on July 4, 1776 in Philadelphia. At this time the 13 colonies were under the rule of King George III. The colonists were tired of the taxes they had to pay to England, so the phrase 'Taxation Without Representation' was echoed throughout America. To control this rebellion the King sent troops to the colonies. English troops advanced toward Concord, Massachusetts in April 1775 making this the unofficial beginning of our war for Independence. The Second Continental Congress worked with England to try to straighten out the differences to no avail. Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, Philip Livingston and Roger Sherman formed a committee to compose the Declaration of Independence. After changes to Thomas Jefferson's first draft the document was approved on July 4, 1776 with 9 states voting for and 2 states voting against. The majority won and John Hancock signed the document to make it official.

Guest reader, Rich Bellamente, read to students at the Child Development Center on June 17th. The boys and girls enjoyed Rich's ability to turn them on to books. Rich is currently in charge of PR for Underwood Hospital. We thank Rich for joining us at CDC.

NASHVILLE, TN KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION

The Kiwanis International Convention was held in Nashville, Tennessee from June 25th through the 28th. George, Connie, Amelia, Joan and Tony formed a caravan of 2 cars. The workshops were helpful in giving us a vision of how we will take our club from good to great status!

1. We learned how a simple analysis & some basic planning can enrich our club experience.
2. Dolly Parton's Imagination Library is a program we need to investigate.
3. We were given innovative & proven ways to promote Kiwanis in our communities & how to build an effective recruiting team in our club.
4. Both struggles & best practices of successful Kiwanis leaders were identified which will help us position ourselves for a great year of excellent leadership.
5. Ideas and techniques to make our club meetings fun and meaningful while creating a sense of fellowship among our members was discussed.
6. An overview of the latest improvements for monthly clubs reports was presented.
7. The new Kiwanis Foundation club representative and the role of the Foundation District Chairman was reviewed.
8. Computer resources available to every member was highlighted.
9. Information was received giving us a valuable insight in getting publicity for our club through social networking, blogging and the use of Web sties to promote our club.
10. An update on Kiwanis Service Leadership programs were given: BUG, K-Kids, Key Club, Key Leader, Key Club, Aktion Club, and Circle K within our Kiwanis family.

The culmination of the Kiwanis International Convention was our new International President Paul Palazzolo's acceptance speech at the closing ceremony. Paul is very precise and clear in the message that he gives to each club president. We need to make the Kiwanis Club of Greater Woodbury the Best Show in Town. Three important things we need to work on are:

1. Build and mentor a new Kiwanis Club
2. Lift our club up to make it the best Kiwanis experience around
3. Grow to service in the Kiwanis family. We have a commitment to the young people we serve to get out and work with our Kiwanis family. We need to work on sponsorship.

These are responsibilities that we need to excel in through our service to young people.

I challenge the Kiwanis Club of Woodbury to have a VISION to make time to make a difference one child at a time. Achieving Growth through the Kiwanis growth strategies gives us 3 questions to consider: (1) What are we deeply passionate about? (2) What can we be the best at in the world? and lastly (3) What drives our resource engine? Why?

Paul Palazzolo says that one million members make 10 million leaders serving one hundred million children.

This is just a little information on what our convention was about. Connie, George, Tony, Amelia and Joan will share more with you at our meetings and in future Kronicles.
